•New stores : We operated three purchasing centers (including franchise stores) in Japan.
 •June corporate auction trading prices: For jewelry, despite the downward trend in gold prices, particularly branded jewelry, saw growth. Watches remained firm, but sales were weak, particularly for popular models. Bags continued to perform well, following the previous month's trend.
 •Individual purchase amount: Purchases, primarily of goods for retail, were progressing smoothly, maintaining a high level following May.
 •Sales Revenue: Backed by strong individual purchases and the promotion of sales strategies, retail sales exceeded expectations, thanks to merchandising that captured domestic and international demand. Corporate sales also performed better than planned despite the weak market environment.
